

Cleanest cities of India

Chandigarh:

- Chandigarh is the Capital of two states Punjab and Haryana.
- The Green city, Chandigarh is located near the foothills of the Shivalik range of the Himalayas. Chandigarh is the best planned city in India, with architecture which is world-renowned, and offers a quality of life.
- The beautiful cleanest and greenest city of India Chandigarh is famous for its Rock Garden, Suhana Lake and Rose Garden.
- Its Eco- friendly environment makes it one of the ever green city of India.

Nagpur:

- Nagpur, The Orange city of India, is the largest city of Maharashtra.
- Nagpur city is dotted with many natural and man-made lakes with Ambazari Lake being the largest.
- The clean and green road with trees and parks around it are one of the major attractions of the Nagpur city.
- The city of orange is surrounded by many parks and 3 famous wildlife ,which are home for many wild animals including Royal Bengal Tiger and recently declared as Tiger Capital of India.

Gandhinagar:

- Gandhinagar The capital of Gujarat is a second well planned city of India and one of the greenest cities in India with 32 lakh trees.
- It is situated on the west banks of the Sabaramati River and about 32 km from another important city of Gujarat that is Ahmedabad.
- The green and clean city Gandhinagar is also considered as the “greenest” town in the world.

Bhopal:

- Bhopal is the capital city of Madhya Pradesh, "Heart of India" is also known as the "city of lakes".
- Bhopal has 33 lakes around the city; The Upper Lake is the oldest man-made lake in India, Locally called as Bada Talab.
- Bhopal is located at the upper limit of the Vindhya mountain ranges, with two most beautiful lakes and a Van Vihar National Park besides the Upper Lake. The city of lakes is a very beautiful city of Madhya Pradesh, and is surrounding by the lush green trees and hills.

Jamshedpur:

- Jamshedpur, The Steel city of India, also known as Tatanagar, is the first beautifully planned industrial township with amazingly scenic surroundings.
- The beautiful green city located in the tribal state, Jharkhand and run without a municipality, the responsibility of conservation and maintenance are done Tata Steel.
- Major attraction of Steel city is Dimna Lake, Jubilee Park, Zoological Park and Dalma Wildlife Sanctuary, which is a dense forests in Jamshedpur and rich in flora and fauna.

Thiruvananthapuram:

- Thiruvananthapuram formerly known as Trivandrum, is the capital of the Indian state of Kerala “God’s own country”.
- Trivandrum is a clean city built on seven hills and named after the sacred snake Anantha, It is also known as “The city of the snake god.”
- Thiruvananthapuram is one of the most beautiful, relaxed, lovely and evergreen city of Kerala with hills, temples, museums, beaches and natural beauty.

Bangalore:

- Bangalore or Bengaluru is the capital of the Indian state of Karnataka,
- The city also known as “The Garden City”. The fastest growing city of India is blessed with a pleasant climate, scenic gardens, beautiful parks and natural lakes.
- Bengaluru is the Silicon Valley of India.

Delhi:

- Delhi, The Capital of India is also quoted as Green Delhi for its lush greenery scattered around the whole city.
- Some of the buildings in Delhi are designed with the concept going green, along with the environmentally friendly transport.
- The Clean and Green Delhi has achieved the status of a green city in India.

Hyderabad:

- Hyderabad is the capital of the state Andhra Pradesh, situated on the banks of river Musi.
- The City of Nawab has a rich history and culture with monuments, mosques and famous for Seven Wonders of Hyderabad.
- Hussain Sagar Lake is one of the largest man made lake situated at the confluence of Hyderabad and Secunderabad, the twin cities of India.

Pune:

- Pune is the second largest city in the state of Maharashtra also known as cultural capital of Maharashtra. The high tech city, pune is one of the fastest growing cities of India.
- Pune is located at foothills of Sahyadri Mountains and surrounded by hills and green forest, which makes it one of the greenest areas in the country.
- The popular attractions of Pune are green parks, big gardens, libraries, museums, amusement, water parks and the best attractions is the climate of Pune, which remains pleasant throughout the year. Apart from the above, there are so many exotic places, like beaches, hill station and lakes, around Pune to visit and enjoy.

Source: <http://www.walkthroughindia.com/walkthroughs/top-10-cities>